

Strong Stitches is a juried fiber arts exhibition fortified with creations that reveal the strength and love of admirable association, working together, and apparel that reinforces unity and identity. Durable and mutual attachments form through the crafting, wearing, and sharing of fiber works. These bonds are built through quilting bees, life-altering occasions, community charity causes, and teaching how to sew on a single button. Between wearable to wall hanging, the Strong Stitches exhibition is open to all fiber arts media.
